FOURTH BRAZIL FOUNDATION GALA

The Brazil Foundation hosted its fourth annual Gala Miami at Downtown Miami's Pérez Art Museum Miami. Chaired by Paulo and Lais Bacchi, owners of luxury Brazilian furnishings company Artefacto, the highly anticipated event attracted a plethora of Brazilian celebrities and socialites including TV personalities Gloria Maria and Eliana Michaelichin, top model Jeísa Chiminazzo, actress and singer

Xuxa Meneghel, and entrepreneur and fashion consultant Lorenzo Martone. The grand affair, sponsored by Park Grove, a luxury condominium developed by Terra Group and The Related Group, and the Mandarin Oriental Miami, entertained hundreds of black tie clad partygoers who helped raised funds for the foundation, which supports social projects in Brazil. Benefactors indulged in a sumptuous seated dinner and bid away on a slew of luxury auction items on De Grisogono earrings, an IWC Schaffhausen ladies' watch and "Projeto Cubos" art pieces designed by 10 Brazilian artists in collaboration with Artefacto. Latin Grammy award winning singer Vanessa da Mata performed to the delight of the audience. The elegant evening, held outside at PAMM, paid tribute to many organizations who are helping Brazilian causes including The Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, Fundação Banco do Brasil and others. This year, the Brazil Foundation Gala Miami raised $525,000.
